4.0. POLICY:

4.1. The University shall control and prescribe the rules and regulations covering the collection, custody and disposition of any and all money collected by the University and all official University organizations. Official University organizations are prohibited from maintaining a commercial checking, savings or deposit bank account, unless authorized by statute and/or the University President.
4.2. All revenues, fees, charges and donations and expenditures must be consistent and fall within the educational mission of the California State University (CSU) as defined by the respective statutes, Board of Trustees and University policies. All expenditures must be supported by original documentation with evidence of purchases and services performed.

5.0. DEFINITIONS:

5.1. Official University Organization - An organization that uses the name of the University in its title in whole or in abbreviated form (e.g., Cal State LA, CSLA, and CSULA) or in any manner that implies or has an official connection with the University. Recognized student groups are excluded from this definition.

5.2. Auxiliary Program Accounts - A sub-account set up to control and record the receipt and expenditure of income, revenues and donations within permissible activities of an official University organization.

5.2.1. Program Income - Self-support activities entered into to supplement and enhance the educational program.

5.2.2. Gifts and Contributions - Funding derived from restricted and unrestricted donations as described in Section 7.1. of the University Development Policies and Procedures.

5.2.3. Fundraising/Public Relations Events - Funding derived from fundraising/public relations events that are earmarked or pledged for a specific purpose.

5.2.4. Workshops, Conferences and Institutes Income - Funding derived from workshops, conferences and institutes and non-credit courses.

5.2.5. Instructionally Related Programs and Activities - Funding derived from instructionally related programs and activities, including agriculture, athletics, radio and television stations, newspapers, films, transportation, and printing that are earmarked or pledged for a specific purpose.

5.2.6. Other - Items not specifically listed that will advance the mission of the University and the CSU.

5.2.7. Acceptable Expenditures - May include:

   a. Hospitality while holding or attending meetings, conferences, or gatherings on or off campus.

   b. Public Service /Community Relations which furthers the mission of the University and the CSU.

   c. University activities not fully supported by other funds.

   d. Student Support activities including scholarships and stipends.

   e. Academic Support activities not fully supported by other funds.

   f. Other items not specifically listed that will advance the mission of the University and the CSU.
5.3. Ownership – Within the scope of this procedure, the word ownership will be used to describe which entity will be held accountable and responsible for a particular campus activity or program, as determined by the President or designee.

5.3.1. Indications of an assumption of ownership include, but are not limited to:

- Authority and discretion to contract for services or materials required by an activity or program, e.g., contract for the use of hotel conference space or to procure scientific equipment;
- Responsibility for business losses or for bearing excess costs when insufficient funds were collected in connection with commercial and non-commercial activities or programs;
- Acceptance of legal liability as an owner or principal entity being both in charge and answerable for an activity or program;
- Acceptance of fiduciary obligations (beyond those associated with an agency relationship) associated with an activity or program;
- Responsibility for the establishment of operating and administrative policies governing an activity or program;
- Primary control or discretion over the expenditure of funds related to a program or activity.

5.3.2. Determination of ownership of an activity or program is not necessarily evidenced by which entity:

- Employs individuals granted signatory authority related to an activity, e.g., authorization to sign a letter or other related documentations on behalf of the accountable and responsible entity;
- Owns the facility where the activity occurs;
- Has been granted a limited authority to request an expenditure;
- Has academic or similar programmatic control over an activity, e.g., a University program’s oversight of studies related to a particular product, item, subject, etc., does not require ownership of such product, item, subject, etc., maintained for the study.

5.3.3. Determining ownership guides the placement of funds within the State University Trust Fund or to auxiliary organization funds. Sections 510 to 580 of the ICSUAM Policy Number 13680 shall guide fund placement for more common activities and programs. Exceptions are permissible where deviation significantly benefits the University.
